Course Descriptions

Two Day Practical Pistol:

Introduces the novice shooter to basic weapon handling and employment skills. The draw, reloading technique, ready positions, multiple target management, turning and shooting on the move are developed during this period of instruction. This course is designed specifically for students with some basic firearms training.

Ammunition count: 1350

Two Day Tactical Pistol:

This course introduces the experienced shooter to tactical employment of the pistol. The student needs to have a solid working knowledge of his weapon system prior to commencing this training as it tends to be fast paced. The draw, reloading, ready positions, immediate action, multiple target management, adverse angles, turning and shooting on the move are all emphasized and honed. Use of cover/ concealment and negotiating barricades are introduced as well as different shooting positions. Cover/ Contact team tactics are introduced as well as rudimentary building entries and searches.

Ammunition count: 1580 minimum

Three Day Patrol Shotgun:

This course explains and demonstrates the versatility of the shotgun in a patrol setting. The student learns the skills that make deployment of the shotgun viable. Covered during the period of instruction are Ammunition selection, employment and use of the shotgun as part of a Cover/ Contact Team. Patterning, mounting, carries, reloading, multiple target management, shooting on the move, use of cover and negotiating barricades are emphasized during this course. Immediate action and transitions to a secondary weapon are also taught.

Ammunition count: 900 buck-shot, 830 bird-shot, 130 slug, 500 pistol

Three Day Patrol Carbine:

Much like the Patrol shotgun course this class emphasizes the versatility of the Carbine in a patrol/ sentry setting. The student hones rifle marksmanship skills and develops the ability to deploy the carbine in a myriad of settings and circumstances. Combat reloading, mounting, carries, multiple target management, adverse angles, shooting while moving, negotiation of barricades and use of cover are stressed to the student. Use of the carbine as part of a Contact/ Cover Team as well as immediate action and transitions to a secondary weapon are also taught.

Ammunition count: Carbine 3,233 pistol 340 minimum

Basic Tactical Five Day:

This course combines the tactical pistol course as well as either of the Patrol long gun courses. It also introduces the student to the basic employment concepts of the tactical team and the functions of its members. This course is designed as part of a three class course for the SWAT/ SERT operator.
